Welcome and introductions. Motivational minute presented by Parker Hume. He spoke to the challenge to be mission and values led. Equality of opportunity, the role of government and needs to be met.

Amend the agenda to have April meeting minutes held over to June meeting raised by Miranda Marquit and seconded by Mel Fitch. Approved. This was due to Annette having a crashed laptop & no access to computers with the coronavirus.

John Conquergood gave the Treasurer's report.

Bylaws Chair Dave Nipper presented an amendment to the bylaws re online/virtual voting. Discussion opened with Dennis Sutton proposing a competing amendment. Pat Tucker moved against Dennis' amendment with Miranda Marquit seconding. Pat then motioned to accept the bylaw changes proposed by Dave Nipper with Parker Hume seconding Approved..

Candidates Corner - Kassie Cerami for the Biden Campaign, Aaron Swisher, Travis Ohler and Miranda Marquit all spoke.

Reports from the Chair and Vice Chair:

1. Pat Tucker talked about the Virtual Meet & Greet to be held on June 17, 2020 with Annita Dunn of the Biden Campaign, as well as Miranda Marquit and David Roth, both running in D33.

2. After June 2 primary results, the central committee is required to hold a reorganization meeting, likely to be held on June 10, with more info to follow.

3. Events are in limbo on date and whether they are virtual or in person. Some canceled, such as the 4th of July celebrations.

IDP Zoom Convention will be held on June 12-14. Todd Devries & Cecile Perez are now on the state accessibility caucus.

The national DNC Convention will be held August 17-20 with details to come.

Adjournment at 8:45pm.
